ordered to be printed; said resolution reads as folordered to be printed; said resolution reads as follows:

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That Kentucky has ever cherished and adhered to the Federal Union, and she will cling to it now in the time of its extremest poril with unfallering devotion. While, at the beginning of the mad and wicked war which is being waged by the rebellious States for the destruction of the Government, she forbore to take part in the hope that she might interpose her friendly offices in the interests of peace, she has nevertheless sternly repelled every movement which locked to a change of her political relations, and has never swerved from her full and fervid loyalty to the noblest and freest Government in the world. And now, since her proffered mediation has been spurned and her soil invaded by the Confederate armies, she deems it fit that she should announce to the world, that, standing firmly by her Government, she will resist every effort to destroy it, and she calls upon her true and heroic sons to rally around the standard of and heroic sons to rally around the standard of their country, and put forth the whole energies of the Commonwealth till the rebellion shall be overthrown, and the just supremacy of the National Government shall be restored and maintained everywhere within its limits.

The instance has already been noted of the passage of the steamer Pink Varble up the Cumberland river, a few days since, with a load of cotton machinery for Nashville—under a pass from Secretary Chase. The owners had associated themselves to start a cotton factory in McMinsville, in Middle Tennessee, early in the season, ordering their machinery in Cincinnati. Fieding it detained by the blocksd, an application was made to the Secretary of the Treasury for a pass on the grounds that the owners were loyal men, and that it would be a year before the factory would be in operation, by which time Tennessee would be in the Union. Secretary Chase only yielded under pressing importunity of Unionists of prominence in Tennessee and Kentucky, feeling the precedent to be a dangerous one.—Chicago Tribune.

It is safe to say that notwithstanding the torpor of a large share of our army and the taunts that we have thus far been "playing at war" a greater number of lives have been lost within the past five months than during the entire war of

We shall probably be able to lay the message in a form more or less perfect before our readers in the Journal of to-morrow. We in common with our countrymen generally await the appearance of the message with proound interest but without apprehension.

PROTECTION FOR VOLUNTEERS -We ar much gratified to have the co-operation of th Frankfort Commonwealth in impressing upon the Legislature as among its first acts of duty the passage of the necessary laws to protect the property of our brave volunteers who are now in camp defending the lives and propert of the citizens of the State. It makes assertions, which we have seen corroborated by a number of letters, that in very many case soldiers now engaged in the war for the Union which falling due during the absence of the soldier his property is liable to be sacrificed. as the present stay law expires on the first o January. We have heretofore urged, as the Commonwealth does now with great force, that it is the duty of the Legislature to take some immediate step in this matter, that the soldier may know while he is fighting for the interests of the State upon the battle-field the legislators of the State will guard his inter ests at home. We think that the universal sentiment of the people of Kentucky demands the enactment of a law forbidding judgments to be rendered or executions issued against any citizen soldier in the Federal service for any debt whatever, including taxes coming of the invaders, and in the meantime gislation must be efficient and leave no loophole for magistrates, who are disloval, to creep out of. There should be, not a mere simple declaratory enactment, but it should be made mandatory under severe penaltics and disqualcurb should be put upon the malignity of the men are coming, just own up! sympathizers with secession, who, in some parts of the State in particular, have acted in the most wanton and fiendish spirit towards those loyal men who have left their homes and families to engage in the holy cause of driving the ruthless invaders from our boundaries and

It thus appears that the rebels are getting sick not only of exposure and privation but of each other. And this sickness evidently defies the curative skill of Dr. Buist and his colleagues. They have plainly made up their ainds to let it have its course. There can be little doubt, we think, that ere many weeks the malady will carry off its victims at a rate that will throw far into the shade the ravages of all other disorders.

Our virtues, and like all the branches of the Angloonfident surmise is that the proclamation, as Saxon race, every where, an order-loving and it came from Price's hand, was a poem in ten a law-abiding people. How any of them have stanzas, of which the following present respect- been seduced into joining, or approving, or vely the material parts in the telegraphic or even apologizing for and tolerating, this lawsubverting, and Heaven-defying rebellion, is absolutely inconceivable. What if Lincoln is When peace and protection could no longer be onjoyed but at the price of honor and liberty, your Chief Magistrate called for 50,000 men to drive the ruthless invader from a soil made fruitful by your labors, and conscerated by your hemes. Less than 5,000 responded out of a male population exceeding 200,000 men.

absolutely inconceivable. What if Lincoln is not the man of our choice, he is just as much the President of the United States as if he were. What if the heads of department were flagitious characters, to a man; their acts are legal acts, all the same. What if the acts of legal acts, all the same. What if the acts of the Government were an hundred fold more lespotic than they are, if they fall short of the enormity which justifies revolution-to me, they are the ordinances of God: "for the Powers that be are ordained of God." Whilst Had 50,000 flocked to our standard with their bot-guns in their hands, there would not now be engaged in a struggle, upon the success of engaged in a struggle, upon the success o which the Union, the Constitution, the supremacy of law, and the preservation of order depend, for me to decry or denounce that Government, to lessen the respect due to it, either by thought, word, or deed, is in direct violation of one of the plainest duties of a Christian man and a good citizen.

To entertain a serious doubt with regard to the final result of this great struggle letrays a sort of religious infidelity. Evil, for a while, may seem to get the upper hand; but short is the triumph of the wicked. Despotism, in many lands, has long held and still holds most crue sway-true patriots are banished, and heroic friends of a well-regulated liberty rot in dungeons. But these all only abide their time and wait patiently or impatiently the working Numbers give strength; numbers intimidate the foe; numbers save the necessity of often fighting battles; numbers command universal respect, and insure confidence. We must have 50,000 that sublime maxim, "The blood of martyrs is the seed of the Church!" But the enemics of mild and well-regulated governments have revelve if ever preserved even for a see out of that sublime maxim, "The blood o have rarely, if ever, prospered, even for a season-traitors against a beneficent government.

To suppose, for a moment, that they eve ould, would be to suppose that the Almighty Ruler of the Universe is not the friend of law Do I hear your shouts? Is it that which echoes and order, and that He has not pledged all His proughout the land? Are you coming, 50,000 glorious attributes to the protection and preservation of rule. Proven vation of THE RIGHT.

In the stupendous conflict now going on in Kentucky and through all our borders, God has not been dethroned, neither has he abdicated, either in favor of Satan, or of any of those deluded and misguided men, who, whattheir stand-point they probably do not perceive it at all), are nevertheless the agents and emissaries of the Spirit of all Evil; who, by way f eminence, is called the accuser of his brethren; and the whole aim of whose rebellion is to produce disunion, to promote discord, to undermine authority, and utterly to subvert all law and order, throughout the Universe. Such wrong-doing shall not, cannot prevail. The victory shall at length be pronounced on the side of God-and the Right!

FREE NEGROES IN OUR STATE.-The third section of the act concerning "Free Negroes, sent of military men, who certainly ought to proved March 3, 1860, and went into operation know, it is a most complete and mas- on the first of this year, provides that any terly performance. No amendment has been made to this law, except that of January 23, 1861, person of reflection. We do not doubt that it marketing, with the written permission of the will meet with a rapid sale. It may be pur- captain or clerk. We have been requested to call attention to the provisions of this very stringent act, as they seem to have been forgotten or overlooked by officers from other States who may desire to bring free colored servants VEDERATE RANKS -A letter found on the with them. Unless the Legislature, at its present session, makes some exception in favor of the attendants upon officers in the service, it will be the imperative duty of our authorities to see that the provisions of this law are rigidly enforced.

Col. Forney, in his latest "Occasional" etter from Washington, pays this high tribute to Dr. Rob. J. Breckinridge:

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26, 1861. The Rev. Robert J. Breckinridge is a great nan. Of the eminent men in the Border States who have remained true to the cause of the Union, w deserve more praise than this elequent divine r. Breckinridge has taken a deep interest, and erhaps, to no man does the ex-Vice-President we as deep a debt of gratitude. In Kentucky the Breckingidge family is pow-orful, and the leader of the Breckinridge family is the clergyman. His views on political ques-tions have gone far towards controlling publi Kentucky, and the affect You know what the position of Robert J. reckinride has been in this crisis. You know ow steadily, how bravely, how affectionately he has opposed the secession proclivities of his nephew, andendeavored to win him away from the snares of the traitors who used him for their own promotion and discarded him in the hour of their actions of this gifted divine. Its logic ear, its argument exhaustive, and its pat Kontucky, Tennessee, Alabama, and North Car-lina. "The Mountain Empire," as he calls it, "is a body of Mountains, all abutting on the left bank miles. These mountains stretch southwestware y, passing entirely through Tennessee, covering arts of North Carol na and Georgia, heavily in vading the north part of Alabama, and making a figure even in the back parts of South Caro-lina and the western parts of Mississippi, having a course of perhaps seven or eight hundred miles, and running far south of the northern limit of profitable cotton culture. It is a region of thirty thousand square miles, trenching upon eight or slaves; trenching upon nearly five cotton States, though raising no cotton itself."

You will see in this argument of Dr. Breckinridge the territorial and agricultural question which bids fair to occupy an important part in the termination of this rebellion; and when we speak of the men of Eastern Tennessee, and praise so lavisbly their loyalty and self-sacrifice, we are but speaking of a people who occupy the heart of what Dr. Breckinridge calls "the Moun-

In their society they have all the elements which go to make a free, happy, prosperous, and permanent people. Andrew Johnson is the type of these mountaineers; and there is no other Southern man, let me say, who possesses to so great a degree the prevailing traits of the true Northerner—courage, frank-

Beard, however, protested unblushingly that it was the truth to a hair, and even went as far as to declare that it was so purely the truth that on his return home he meant to have it published in the Cincinnati papers—as an advertisement. LADIES SOLDIERS' RELIEF ASSOCIATION An error appeared in the report of this Association as published in the Democrat of yesterday, by which the sub-report of Mrs. Curran Pope, one of the most active and zealous and efficient members of the body, was cur- Casey, arrested at Lair's Station, on the Kentucky tailed of its just proportions. This error is | Central railroad, on the charge of treason. Cacorrected in the report as published in our sey, it is said, confessed having been one of the columns this morning.

Gen. Buell is greatly annoyed by persons camps on the line of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. Those who make such applications are loyal men and women, and it pains the commanding general that he cannot gratify their wishes, but the necessities of the service require that he shall be more rigid hereafter in the observance of the rules in relation to passes. Passes will be issued, however, to a limited extent for persons to visit the encampments in the immediate vicin ity of the city.

MRS. MAT. PEEL'S CAMPBELL MINSTRELS .-This troupe has created a decided impression in our city, and they well deserve it. On each night the ball has been well filled. Their performances have been marked by an entire absence of vulgarity or any approximation thereto. The fair manageress, Mrs. Mat. Peel, has decided, at the solicitation of many who were compelled by the inclemency of the weather from attending during last week, to remain Tuesday, Wednes day, and Thursday evenings of this week. With her accustomed liberality, Mrs. Peel will give an entertainment on Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Soldiers' Aid Society. We feel confident that each night the hall will be even better filled than it was during the past week. On Monday night the company appear in New Albany, and we bespeak for them a full house.

The soldiers up in Cheat Mountain, Va., it have built a very respectable little tain ci'y in which to house this winter. When the disadvantages under which the men had to labor are taken into consideration, it will appear that a gigantic work has been performed. One brigade had no tools except a few axes, one "geset" augur, one do. adze, one do. draw-knife; and with this meagre supply four thousand men had to work. The greaters part of the lumber of the lu had to work. The greater part of the lumber had to be brought from a distance of half a mile and that upon the backs of the men. The chimnevs are all substantial stone structures, while the buildings are neatly roofed and "chunked and daubed" thoroughly.

THE HOLMAN TROUPE -The announcement that this great juvenile opera troupe will make its appearance again in this city on Thursday evcning will give universal gratification. Since their last appearance the Holmans have added many novelties to their collection of pieces, and Wardit complete. None of our pleasure seekers will forget the wonderful genius of Little Sallie and the precocity of the more youthful Julia. Mr. Buch, the agent, has made arrangements for a short seesan at Marcat Lall. short season at Mozart Hall.

THEATRE .- Mrs. Adah Menken appears this evening as William, the sailor boy, in the nautical drama of Black Eyed Susan, and as Lola Montez in the farce of that name. She sings and dances, and will exert herself to please her auditors, as she always does. We dare not write much about Mrs. M. or the house will be full to suffocation, for she is attracting very large audi-

BRECKINRIDGE AND HUNTER -It is currently stated and believed among the Washington secessionists that John C. Breckinridge and R. M. T. Hunter have already been selected by Jeff Davis's government to go abroad as ambassadors in place of Slidell and Mason, and that they are intending to secretly cross our lines into Canada, and sail from Quebec or Halifax.

OHIO TROOPS FOR KENTUCKY .- The Cincinnati Enquirer says it is understood at headquarters that all complete regiments in the State will be uniformed, equipped, and armed, and, as soon as possible, hurried forward to Camp Dennison, where they will remain until they receive marching orders from General Buell, and be assigned to some portion of Kentucky.

CLOSING OF THE SALOONS. - Yielding to a sense of the existence of a "military necessity," Provost Marshal Dent issued an order on Saturday evening requiring the drinking saloons to be closed at once, and to remain closed until Monday morning. The movement was very generally approved, and the effect was most salutary.

COMPLIMENT TO THE GUTHRIE GRAPS. - Arrangements have been made with Major Z. M. Sherley, President of the Louisville and Cincinnati Mail Line, for a free passage to Louisville and back to Cincinnati of the wives and parents of the Soldiers of the Sixth Ohio Volunteers.

ARRESTS FOR TREASON.-U. S. Marshal J. H. Cromwell, of Mt. Sterling, Ky., arrested on Monday last S. Bachman, Adam Baum, and a Mr. Rose on a charge of treason to the Government. Their trial commenced before His Honor, R. Apperson, U. S. Commissioner, on Tuesday.

ACCIDENT -E. T. Brewer, of Captain Kalfus's company, in Colonel Pope's regiment at New Haven, was shot and wounded in the hand by accident on Thursday evening while on guard. The wound is so serious as to render amoutation necessary.

THE GROWING WHEAT CROP.-From all parts of Illinois and Ohio we learn that the growing wheat crop never looked better at this season o the year than now. Should the winter prove a vorable, the prospect for an abundant harvest flattering.

CHARLES ANDERSON .- The Cincinnati Enquirer learns that Charles Anderson, Esq., who recently succeeded in escaping from Texas, while on his way North, has been captured by Ben Mc-Cullough's free-booters.

Col. Moore, arrived at the Newport (Kv.) Baracks on Thursday with nine secession prisoners taken in the neighborhood of Cat's Fork of Plains, Ky., whose names are as follows: Isaac chandler and Thomas Chandler, Johnston coun ; Wm. McKinney, John Murphy, Harrison Young, Johnston Griffith, Jos. Prim, John Blank nship, and James R. Rose, Lawrence county On Friday morning Captain Henry Wilson and Lieutenant Jukes, of Colonel Foley's regiment arrived with J. N. Lair, Joseph Lair, and George ive composing the party which fired upon and killed the watchman at Kimbro's Bridge some months ago; and James Lair is known to have making applications for permission to visit the offered $1,000 for the burning of the same. The whole party will remain at the barracks until the next sitting of the Federal Court at Covington, when they will undergo a trial for treason.

GENERAL ORDERS NO 81.

II. In accordance with section 12 of the act of Congress of July 12, 1861, entitled "An act to authorize the employment of Volunteers," the following method of enabling such of the Volunteer of the United States as may desire it, to assign portions of their pay for the benefit of their asign portions of their pay for the benefit of their families is hereby ad pted.

1st. The assignment of pay will be made on a separate roll, to be executed under the supervision of the Captain or immediate commander of the recruit at the time of enlistment, or of the soldier in camp.

oldier in camp.
21. When completed, the Allotment Roll is to be transmitted to the Paymaster General, by whom the deductions will be made on each subse quent pay-roll, and the aggregate amount of each company's assignment will be transmitted by him to the distributor named in the roll, together with

By order, JOHN W. FINNELL, Adjutant General. spondence of the Louisville Journal.] COL. BOONE'S REGIMENT IN CAMP. CAMP WASHINGTON, BULLITT. Co, KY, November 27, 1861.

By the assistance of Government wagon By the assistance of Government wagons steam, horses, and nearly all other modes of con veyance known to man, I succeeded in making good a fourney from New Mexico to this point is 34 days, and strange to say, I made no delay is isville, as camp life is to me far preferable outsville, as camp life is to me far preterable to he hum drum momotony of city life.

Upon my arrival in this place, I was, by the induces of Captain Noble and Lieut. McDowell of the Dupont Zouaves, shown round, and I must onfess that I felt truly prond to see so many of my fellow Kentuckians enduring all the fatigues. my fellow Kentuckians enduring all the Luguas of camp life, and endeavoring to become good and efficient soldiers. If Colonel Boone succeeds in filling up his regiment, Kentucky will yet be proud of the gallant Colonel and the noble soldiers under his command. I speak professionally, for, being an old soldier myself, I think I can judge the material of which heroes are made.

The camp at this place is truly beautiful, and the arrangements for the accommodation of the "bold soldier boys" are as good as could be expected. Cant. Burnham is endeavoring to raise "bold soldier boys" are as good as could be expected. Capt. Burnham is endeavoring to raise a company, which will belong to this regiment. Are there not some gallant young Kentuckians who are willing to come forth and enlist to drive the invader from our soil and protect untarnished the fair fame of our old and glorious native State? It is to be hoped that many will come, and that this regiment may become the peer of the best. I witnessed the drill of Capt. Noble's company this morning, and was much pleased at their exercises, and for their kindness to me. I trust that the Captain and his men will receive the thanks of an OLD SOLDIER.
